“An Advanced Learning Community”

School Profile 2020-21

History

Dorado Academy, Inc. is a nonprofit corporation established under the laws of the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico to operate an private independent, nonsectarian, English language school of the highest academic standards based on the Puerto Rican culture to serve Dorado and surrounding communities. Founded in 1972, Dorado Academy was developed initially as a response to the need for a private school in the Dorado area. At present, services extend from pre-kinder through twelfth grades.

Mission

“Dorado Academy will strive every day to maintain the highest educational standards, while fulfilling the following commitments:

- To its students: Innovative education in synergy with our times, that will empower self-learning, promote resiliency and cater to individual academic interests., while preparing you for all challenges and lifelong pursuits
- To its faculty: Recognition as our most critical resource through competitive compensation and our full support in your continued development and certification
- To its community: Sponsor a family-first environment that will effectively interact with our neighbors through strong principles of participative citizenship”

Vision

“Dorado Academy is to be recognized as the premier English instruction Institution in Puerto Rico, by continuously ensuring the highest quality of education through an integrated learning program focused on the creation of innovative leaders and upstanding citizens, well prepared to meet the challenges of today’s society”.
